

1. I'm 周子涵, or Zhōu Zihán, PKU ID 2500011162. You can call me Matthew, if the Chinese name is hard to pronounce to you.
2. I major in Biomedical Engineering.
3. I'm quite interested in astronomy, and I look forward to knowing ideas and results from the international academic circle.
4. I'm most interested in cosmology. I'd like to learn about the best theories about the formation of the universe.
5. I'm not quite good at spoken English, but I can understand you well in the lecture.
6. I come from Shanghai, and I really appreciate Yangchun noodles.
7. I wander on campus alone often, singing songs and looking at the stars. Does it sound interesting to you?
8. I cannot come up with one. Maybe it's a boring answer :(
9. I use ChatGPT. It collects information better than search engines, but it performs awfully when it comes to finding mistakes, as it always obeys your orders.

10.
